

CONNECTICUT WARBLER CONSERVATION SUMMIT

Bringing together partners from the U.S. & Canada to address urgent conservation needs

Friday, October 21, 2022

9:00am – 3:00pm CT

Hosted virtually by the Northern Forest Birds Network:

Ryan Brady, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources

Dr. Alexis Grinde, Natural Resources Research Institute, University of Minnesota-Duluth

Join via Zoom here:

<https://umn.zoom.us/j/97070401618?pwd=WWRraldyUlhYUTIhd0RXVVRXZUd6dz09>

TENTATIVE AGENDA (subject to change)

-- All times are Central time zone --

- 9:00 Welcome & Introductions
- 9:30 United States – overview of status and range (10 min) – Ryan Brady
 - Wisconsin (10 min) – Ryan Brady
 - Minnesota (10 min) – Alexis Grinde
 - Michigan (10 min) – Brianne Boan
- 10:10 Canada – overview of BBS trends & status assessments (20 min) – A. Smith & M. Gahbauer
 - Quebec (10 min) – Bruno Drolet
 - Ontario (10 min) – Mike Burrell
 - Manitoba (10 min) – Tim Poole
 - Saskatchewan (10 min) – Steve Van Wilgenburg
 - Alberta (10 min) – Erin Bayne
 - British Columbia (10 min) – Mark Phinney
- 11:30 South America
 - Wintering grounds research (30 min) – Mike Hallworth
 - Overview of Gran Chaco region (15 min) – Craig Thompson
- 12:15 BREAK
- 12:45 Research & Monitoring Needs – discuss recent work and priority needs
- 1:30 Threats & Limiting Factors – identify priority conservation actions
- 2:15 Moving Forward
 - Do we need a working group and/or conservation plan?
 - Are there similar species-specific efforts to emulate or avoid?
 - Funding opportunities
- 3:00 ADJOURN